

Our team visited to Wanla village under Vikshit Khrishi Sankalp Abhiyaan. The programme started by Dr Jigmet KVK: brief introduction of VKSA and its main objectives. Next Dr. Akash CAZRI talk about the Management and control - yellow tail moth and leaf miner on Poplar trees; scale insect on will trees. Mrs Rigzin Dolma, Agriculture department shared awareness regarding different agricultural schemes such as Per drop more Crop, Traditional Water Mill Renovation, Ladakh Polycarbonate Green House, Mulching Technology etc. At last Dr Dechen Angmo, SAST Stakna talked about Crop geometry and management practices of vegetable crops such as onion, potato, tomato, cucurbits etc. Problems of farmers- 1. Weed: Solution- Maintain proper spacing of crops; Adoption of proper weeding tools e.g. wheel hoe 2. Onion maggot- Solutions: use of yellow sticky trap; Soil solarization; Autumn ploughing; avoid procurement of seedlings from onion maggot infested areas and prefer producing seedling on the farm itself 3. Codling moth in apple - Solutions: Orchard sanitation, use of Delta and light traps all these issues were addressed and given onspot solution by all the experts and overall the campaign was very helpful to the local farmers.

the 2nd visit to Lamayuru village. The Programme started by Dr Jigmet KVK giving brief introduction of VKSA and its main objectives. Next Dr. Akash CAZRI talk about Management and control - yellow tail moth and leaf miner on Poplar trees; scale insect on will trees. Later Mrs Rigzin Dolma from Agriculture department had spread awareness regarding different agricultural schemes such as Per drop more Crop, Traditional Water Mill Renovation, Ladakh Polycarbonate Green House, Mulching Technology etc. At last Dr Dechen Angmo, SAST Stakna shared information about Crop geometry and management practices of vegetable crops such as onion, potato, tomato, cucurbits etc. Problems of farmers- 1. Issue of Aphid: 2. Destruction of apple and apricot saplings by livestock (mainly in winters) 3. Codling moth in apple 4. Problem of cabbage butterfly 5. Problem of maggot These issues were addressed by the respective expert from different department and all together made the campaign very successful.

Dr kunzang lamo (veg scientist KVK Leh) imparted knowledge about low tunnel technology to the farmers in Domkhar village where Dr Stanzin Angmo (Horticulture department) shared various scheme related to horticulture. Ms Diskir Angmo Agriculture department shared various available Government Scheme and good agriculture practices. Mohd Raza CAZRI shared about new trail technology in CAZRI research institute. Mr Phuntsog Yangphel share his view on Government subsidies scheme under Animal Husbandry Department. Also next they visit Achinathang village where the programe imitate with introduction by Dr kunzang Lamo (SMS KVK LEH) where she also demonstret low tunnel technology for summer vegetable and fruits. Ms Diskit Angmo imparted knowledge about good agriculture practices and encourage farmers about avail government scheme. Dr changchup Lamo shared about the CAZRI research institute and their trail works. Other scheme related to government shared by Mr yangphel.

Feed back

- Farmers are facing issues mainly related to insect pest of various agricultural crops and most them were given solution onspot.
- Farmers requested fencing for their apple & apricot orchards. They also need hands on training on pruning.

- Need solution for Aphids problem in ladakh greenhouse
- Spreading of weed due to power tiller
- Codling moth issue

