

Title of the Training Programme	Advances in Wool Testing
Type of the Programme	Exposure visit cum Training
Aim of the Programme	The training programme aimed to familiarize participants with modern, standardized methods for objective and instrumental testing of wool fibre quality in accordance with international protocols, with the objective of enhancing the technical competence of participants in wool quality evaluation, improving their understanding of global wool testing standards, and strengthening their capacity to support effective quality assurance, grading, and market-oriented wool production.
Duration	5 days
Dates	17 to 21 Feb 2025
Venue	Australian Wool Testing Authority Laboratories, Melbourne Australia
Trainees	Scientists of SKUAST-K
Number of participants	02
Event organizers	Australian Wool Testing Authority
Sponsor	Holistic Agriculture Development Programme
Methodology Adopted	Lectures, demonstrations, exposure visits, interaction, hands-on sessions, Feedback sessions etc.
Outcomes and Impact	Enhanced technical competence